

ISCA Awards 2025: Global IRTS

Data Protection Policy

ISCA Awards 2025 organisers know that you care how information about you is used and shared, and we appreciate your trust that we will do so carefully and sensibly.

Various security procedures have been created to protect the information we collect from you, how this data may be used, with whom we may share this data and for what purposes has it been collected.

Information you give us:

We receive and store any information you enter on our web site or give us in any other way. You can choose not to provide certain information, but then your application will not be completed. We use the information that you provide for such purposes as responding to your requests, customising future activities, improving our management, and communicating with you.

What information is collected and why?

Personal information is collected from you for the purpose of providing fast and efficient communication with you and other applicants. This basic information includes name, address, email contact details, telephone, your organisation's name. The ISCA Awards 2025 organisers undertake that the information assembled will not be disclosed to any third parties unless required to by law.

Security and Legal Ramifications

Every effort is made to protect personal information provided to us via this website; however organisers cannot guarantee absolute security. The Internet is vulnerable and liable to penetration by unscrupulous parties; therefore we cannot guarantee the security of any data that may be transmitted via our website.

All information gathered that may no longer be required will be destroyed in compliance with the appropriate laws.

Feedback

Should you wish to discuss any element of the Privacy Policy or believe that the ISCA Awards 2025 have not adhered to its stated principles, please communicate with us or send us an email at info@isca-web.org.
